

Cheltenham Remembers.

A WEEKEND OF REMEMBRANCE

Please join us and show that Cheltenham Remembers.

Sat 10th November

1:30-3pm WW1 Memorial March

Join us on a march to honour over 1,200 servicemen and servicewoman named on the town's War Memorial. The march will begin at Sandford Park and follow a route through the town centre, ending in Montpellier Gardens. Register to take part via Cheltenham Remembers website or come along to watch this moving tribute.

Sun 11th November

10:45am Remembrance Sunday

A Civic Service and Parade will take place at the War Memorial.

5-8pm WW1 Projection

Our final commemoration event is a powerful, thought provoking and poignant projection of WW1 imagery and sound that will light up the Municipal Offices, marking 100 years since the signing of the Armistice Agreement. Please come along to the Promenade to experience this unique free 15 minute projection that will be shown every half hour from 5pm.

www.cheltenhamremembers.org.uk

There will be memorial banners in Montpellier Gardens and a Field of Remembrance by Cheltenham War Memorial both days.

